Test Report

1.0 Test of LearnEasy Home Screen

1.0.0 Summary of testing

A dialog box should appear when you log into LearnEasy asking the user to select their default folder for lessons. All of the lessons in this folder should then be displayed to the user.

1.0.1 Prerequisites

Latest version of LearnEasy (commit d1b417e), test XML files in local file directory.

1.0.2 Test importance

1.0.3 Test results

Test Case	Expected Results	Obtained Results
The dialog box appears asking the user to select their default folder	Dialog box opens when LearnEasy is first opened	Passed
This dialog box can be permanently hidden (even after the program is closed it should not re-appear if the box is ticked).	Box is ticked and when LearnEasy is reopened it no longer appears	Passed
Check that the home screen displays all of the lessons in that folder with the correct file path	Able to view and click all lessons in selected directory	Passed
Check that the home screen also displays recently opened lessons.	Able to view and select previously opened lessons	Passed
